

Smart Farming is a voluntary resource efficiency programme that works with farmers to improve farm returns while enhancing the rural environment.

Headline 2020 results include:

€5,602

Average cost savings identified on the participating farms.

9%

Average reduction of greenhouse gas emissions.

€5,780

Average cost savings identified on the participating dairy farms.

€5,436

Average cost savings identified on the participating livestock farms.

19%

Of overall savings due to improved grassland.

29%

Of overall savings due to addressing soil fertility.

To find out more visit the smart farming website at www.smartfarming.ie

DISCLAIMER: The cost savings and environmental measures identified in the assessments represent Smart Farming's best endeavours to improve resource efficiency and farm incomes, as well as enhance the environment, and are dependent on the recommendations being acted upon